

REGINALD CHESTER MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Reginald Chester was a Cooperative Extension advocate for nearly 50 years. He was on the Board of Directors and served as President twice. He devoted much of his time working to support youth and 4-H Camp in St. Lawrence County.

To remember Reginald and his dedication to Cornell Cooperative Extension, a scholarship has been created to help youth attend 4-H Camp. Youth are encouraged to apply for the scholarship who enjoy working with their hands, meeting other youth, and having new experiences in life. Youth of all ages are encouraged to apply by completing the attached application about why they would like to attend 4-H camp this summer. Youth with more than one sibling attending or youth with financial constraints are greatly encouraged to apply.

The following criteria must be met to be considered for this scholarship:

- Candidate must be an enrolled 4-H member of St. Lawrence County.
- Candidate will submit the required application to Cornell Cooperative Extension of St. Lawrence County on or before May 20, 2022.
- Awardee will apply the scholarship money towards the 2022 Camp Overlook Season.
- Awardee will share about their camping experience with at least one group of youth.
- Awardee will Write a "Thank You" note to the 4-H Scholarship & Development committee or donor family, thanking them, telling them what gained from attending camp this summer and why the experience met so much to them.
- Awardee will give back to the community by volunteering 2 hours of time working in the 4-H Youth Building during the St. Lawrence County Fair. If there is a schedule concern or conflict in volunteering at this event, the awardee can arrange another volunteer opportunity with the Extension Office.

Please complete the attached application to be considered for the Reginald Chester Memorial Scholarship.

If you have any questions, please reach out to the Cornell Cooperative Extension Office at 315-379-9192.
